FURTHER NOTICES

Christmas Bazaar 24th November 10.30am – 2.30pm

The bazaar is two weeks away, and we haven't nearly enough items on the tombola stall. Also help is still needed, both to man stalls, help with teas/coffees etc. and to sit with Father Christmas! I desperately need Christmas trees. White ones, green ones, big ones, small ones, just any trees. They can be given or lent. Any lent ones will be returned on Monday 3rd December. I will be in the foyer after the Service this morning. Maureen.

We are also still in need of pieces of faux fur, furry fabric etc. Any size will be a help. If anyone feels able to bake a cake, any size, any flavour it would be very gratefully received. This can be brought in on the Friday or on the day!

I am collecting names for the Church Christmas card from today. Maureen.

Angel Tree Project --- Long Lartin

With Christmas drawing nearer, I again ask for your support for this very worthwhile project, the aim of which is to provide those in prison with an opportunity to send a gift to their children. It is so much appreciated by all concerned. Please see the letter and poster on the notice board in the Wesley Hall. If you can help please pass your donation to Margaret Kenny over the next few weeks. Tel. 292711

Welcome to Christmas in Narnia

Saturday 1st December 10.00am – 4.00pm. Methodist Church Centre. Join us for a thoughtful journey through a Narnia Wonderland. Follow the robin and meet Mr. Tumnus, the Beavers and Aslan along the way.

3.00pm. Tea with the Beavers and Community Carol Singing.

Refreshments and activities throughout the day.

Circuit prayer from Broadway

Dear Lord, on this centenary of Armistice, we remember the sacrifices of our soldiers, sailors and airmen who have kept our country free from that First Great War to our own troubled times.

We pray for all people suffering still from the miseries and deprivations of war. We pray that you guide our leaders to act with courage and wisdom in their decisions and actions concerning world affairs.

All this we ask for the sake of our merciful Lord Jesus, Amen.

Sunday 18th November at 10.30am Service will be led by Revd. David Haslam
