Circuit prayer from Evesham

Loving God, on this All Saints' Day, we are reminded that we belong to your people and must care not only for each other, but also for those who need our help. We remember especially this day those who have gone before us who loyally served you all their days with great faithfulness. In many cases they influenced our own Christian lives through their preaching, Sunday School teaching and example. May we, through your Holy Spirit, be given the grace to follow their example and remain faithful to you all our days. This we ask in the name of our risen Lord and Saviour. Amen.

We pray for those who have lost their lives in recent weeks, remembering the airline disaster off the coast of Indonesia, the helicopter crash in Leicester, the shootings in Pittsville, hurricanes in the Americas, and wars and other disasters in the Middle East and Africa. We ask God's blessing on those who mourn.

Sunday 11th November at 10.30am Remembrance Day Service will be an own arrangement.
